

K-love is the only radio station of the four I receive in my area that I financially support and listen to and know to be positive and free of profane lyrics. We need one station to stay above the secular downfall of morality in the entertainment industry for the childrens sake and those of us who pay for good clean honest messages.